ANNOUNCEMENT OF SEASONAL LOCALS SCHEDULED TO CONDUCT DELEGATE
NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS IN THE SUMMER OF 2015 AND NOTIFICATION OF NUMBER OF DELEGATES TO BE ELECTED

MAY 6, 2015

Article II, Sec. 3(a)(2) of the proposed Rules for the 2015-2016 IBT International Union Delegate and Officer Election (the “2016 Rules”) requires the Election Supervisor to determine the delegate and alternate delegate nomination and election schedule for IBT seasonal locals based on the time of year when seasonal employment is likely to be at a peak and, considering the schedule for the election process, when it would be most appropriate to conduct the election. The 2016 Rules define seasonal locals as those locals in which 10% or more of the membership of the local is employed by a seasonal food industry employer.

Pursuant to the 2016 Rules, the Election Supervisor has provisionally determined that the local unions listed below are seasonal locals required to nominate and elect delegates and alternate delegate(s) to the IBT International Union convention during the Summer of 2015. The number of delegates each seasonal local is required to elect is also stated below. A provisionally designated seasonal local may request the Election Supervisor to review the designation, and submit facts to support a request that the local be allowed to conduct its nomination and election of delegates and alternate delegate(s) either in the fall of 2015 or in 2016.

Local Union Plans for delegate and alternate delegate elections conducted in the Summer of 2015 are due to the Election Office by June 1, 2015. The on-line tool for completing and submitting local union election plans will be available in mid-May 2015. An Election Office representative will contact each seasonal Local Union and explain the use of this new tool.
